This is a view of the main tunnel in the Kinzua power project looking into the bifurcation. To the left is the penstock number two and branching off to the right penstock number one. Water from the reservoir flows from the Allegheny Reservoir through the powerhouse and the two penstocks into a tunnel to the reservoir located atop the adjacent mountain. HHH Declares U.S., USSR Have Parallel Responsibility

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey said Tuesday the United States and the Soviet Union have "a special and parallel responsibility" for world peace and he proposed that their leaders hold regular summit meetings each year.

"If there are to be regular summits," the vice president said, "they must entail common work for peace" and "must not become mere vehicles for propaganda nor springboards for illusion."

"The nuclear age calls for new forms of diplomacy," said Humphrey, the Democratic presidential nominee, "less of ritual, more conducive to frank, informal contacts."

Nixon Urges Working Men Not to Support Wallace

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, in territory rich in union votes, urged working men Tuesday not to discard their presidential ballots for the "moment's satisfaction" of supporting third-party candidate George Wallace.

"Do you just want to get something off your chest, or do you want to get something done," the Republican nominee for the White House asked some 5,000 people at a rally in Flint.

He said working men have a long list of grievances with President Johnson and the Democrats, but the way to register them is by voting Republican, not by casting ballots for Wallace.

"This is the time to realize that either the nominee of the Republican party, Richard Nixon, or the nominee of the other party, Hubert Humphrey, is going to be elected," he said. "We can't afford Humphrey, now let's go out and win."

Nixon was described as believing that Michigan and Ohio are the Northern states in which Wallace has mustered the most support. But he also believes that Wallace support is on the wane.

Sources familiar with Nixon's views said the candidate believes that in the final weeks of the campaign "the people really will start to think" and will turn away from Wallace.

In a policy speech to the 125-nation General Assembly Abba Eban, the Israeli foreign minister, proposed also an international conference of Middle East countries to set up a five-year plan for solution of the Palestine refugee problem. He said the conference could be called in advance of peace negotiations.

Senate-House Conferees Okay Compromise Gun Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate-House conferees agreed Tuesday on a bill to prohibit interstate mail order sale of all firearms and ammunition. The compromise measure also includes a general ban on over-the-counter sale of firearms to nonresidents of a state and prohibits sales of rifles and shotguns to persons under 18 years of age. Persons under 21 already are banned from buying handguns.

Control and Safe Streets Act passed earlier in the year banning interstate mail order sales of handguns.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D. Conn., chief Senate sponsor of the legislation, hailed the compromise as "a milestone."

It extends this ban to rifles and shotguns and also covers sales of all kinds of ammunition. Besides the prohibition on interstate mail order sales, the bill regulates sales of firearms by mail within a state by providing for a seven-day waiting period and the filing of an affidavit of eligibility by the purchaser.

And Rep. Emanuel Celler, D. N.Y., chairman of the House conferees, called it a thorough-going and comprehensive gun control measure.

Over-the-counter sales to nonresidents would be prohibited except that a person could buy a long gun in an adjoining state if he qualified under the laws of both states.

Allied Ground Sweeps Uncover Tons of Enemy Munitions

Disorders Break Out In D.C. Negro District

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disorders broke out in Washington's Negro district Tuesday night after a white policeman shot and killed a Negro man whom officers said resisted arrest for a pedestrian traffic violation.

The man, unidentified and described as between 20 and 30, was pronounced dead at Freedman's Hospital.

Without the stockpiles of food, munitions and medical supplies, the enemy may have to postpone or abort future offensives that were expected in the November monsoon season, said the source.

French Flag Recovered

The strains of Les Marseillaise may not sound today—nor will an ambassador from France be present—but the "Fleur-de-lis" flag of France—stolen recently will fly again with the British Jack and the Stars and Stripes.

The French flag was recovered Tuesday in Jamestown, N.Y. following an extensive investigation by borough police Sgt. Edward Peterson (which is continuing). Suspects are being questioned.

The three flags, which commemorate the history of Warren County were dedicated in May during special ceremonies. The Fleur-de-Lis was removed from its high standard when culprits broke the lock which controlled the ropes used to raise or lower the flag.

It is hoped the flag will be raised today.

It's an electronically planned meal, part of a system unveiled today as what spokesmen called the nation's first commercially available large-scale feeding program entirely controlled by computer.

Based on six years of research supported by federal funds at Tulane University, the computer-controlled mass feeding program enables Research Hospital personnel to plan a three-week cycle of meals in minutes—a job which formerly took them 80 hours.

Translated from computer code, the dinner cited consists of pineapple juice, chicken fried steak, mashed turnips, apple cranberry salad and butter-scotch pie.

This gives dieticians more time to plan special meals for individual patients, authorities explained.

Patients notice little difference with the new system, but the hospital staff does.

Dieticians in the 517-bed hospital communicate by a printer keyboard through a telephone link with an IBM System 360 computer housed in the Midwest Research Institute about four miles away.

"The assurances of proper nutritional levels in every diet," said Jack Bowman, hospital food services director, "means that each patient receives the best possible nourishment at a savings that helps keep down the total cost to the patient."

The computer is loaded with a list of all 2,500 foodstuffs in the hospital pantry, 800 recipes and 700 inventory items. The ma-

Hospital spokesmen estimate they have cut raw food costs by about 20 per cent in the first month of meal planning by computer.

Ambulance Delayed by HHH Motorcade

ERIE — An Erie ambulance driver, on his way to an emergency call, was stopped by Erie police Monday to make way for the Humphrey motorcade.

Driver Page said the stop cost him "a precious couple of minutes and it could very easily have been a matter of life and death."

Fortunately, Lillie Braggs, 45, of 312 E. 18th st., is in satisfactory condition in Doctor's Osteopathic Hospital, according to hospital aides.

Page said he received an emergency call and, with lights flashing and siren blaring, he was stopped by two motorcycle policemen who demanded he pull over. Another motorcycle policeman told him he was going to have to wait although he explained he was on an emergency call.

According to Page, a few minutes passed before cruiser passed his ambulance and gave him permission to proceed.

He picked up the woman at G. C. Murphy, 914 State st., where she had fallen after suffering chest pains and shortness of breath, according to Page.

Senate Questions Fairness Of State Scholarships

HARRISBURG (AP) — Members of a special Senate investigating committee questioned the fairness Tuesday of the state's method of awarding college scholarships.

The complaints came at the first public hearing of the committee, headed by Sen. John T. Van Sant, which is looking into the program administered by the State Higher Education Assistance Agency.

Sen. Martin L. Murray, D. Luzerne, brought up the question of equality when he asked if it were fair that a student attending the University of Pennsylvania — where tuition is $1,900 — should receive an amount similar to one attending a state-owned or state-related college.

Tuition at state-owned and related schools usually is considerably less than at private schools.

Kenneth R. Reher, executive director of the scholarship agency, said that one reason for the possible inequity was the reduction of the maximum grant per student from $1,200 to $800 a year. That change went in effect for the current school year.

Later, Reher expanded his

Committee Plans Program

JAMESTOWN — The Chautauque County Action for Clean Air Committee is planning a full program of activities during Clean Air Week, to be held from Oct. 20 to 26. R. Theodore Smith of Jamestown, chairman of the local group, said Tuesday that a comprehensive educational program on local air pollution is currently being completed.

Smith said the program this year will focus on air pollution from automobiles and industries, a great portion of which, he said, can be controlled.

One day during Clean Air Week will also be devoted to the hazards of leaf burning. Further details of the week-long program will be announced next week.

Any area organization in need of a speaker for a meeting may call Smith. He said the local Clean Air Committee is very willing to provide speakers, group discussion leaders, literature and films. Films and literature will also be available to teachers on a first come, first served basis.

Formed last year, the Chautauque County group is affiliated with the New York State Action for Clean Air Committee. The state organization is sponsored by the New York State TB and Respiratory Disease Association, the Medical Society of New York State, Associated Industries of New York State and the State Health Department.

Rouse Home Guest Prepares To Celebrate 101st Birthday

By FRANCES RHODES

Mrs. Lily Jobson had a pretty nice birthday a year ago, she thought. The highlight was receiving a citation from the President of the United States, Lyndon B. Johnson, because she was 100 years old. But Mrs. Jobson had had a stroke and was not feeling as well as she might have, at that time.

This year though, Mrs. Jobson feels and looks better. It is because of the care she receives at the Rouse Home, according to her family. She is in high spirits because the Rouse Volunteers have planned a big party for her 101st birthday, next Thursday, October 10. The County Commissioners have promised to be there, along with her doctor, Dr. John Robertson, and her three daughters, Ethel Lindahl and Dorothy McCumber of Henlock street, Warren, and Cassie Nelson of Erie. And of course, she will have the conventional cake.

Mrs. Jobson's birthday was actually Tuesday, but the Volunteers have invited the Circle 8 square dancers to entertain at the regular weekly social hour for all Rouse residents on that date.

Mrs. Jobson was born in New London, Wisconsin, on October 8, 1867—the year that Alaska was sold to the United States for 2 cents an acre. Indians lived all around them, and Mrs. Jobson recalls that her mother used to tell her they were always coming to see the new baby, and she was afraid they would steal the child, they liked her so much.

People still like to visit her. Because of her cheerful disposition she has become one of the most popular guests at the Rouse Home, which she entered in February 1967 following her stroke. On occasion, she sings for the staff and volunteers.

Mrs. Jobson, twice married, lived formerly in Austin, Pa., and Erie, Pa., and came to Warren in 1957. She has a brother nine years her junior in California, a number of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, great-great-grandchildren, and one fifth generation great-great-grandson, Leroy Loney Jr. One great-grandson is serving aboard the U.S.S. Aircraft carrier Independence in the Mediterranean.

ASME Will Tour Art Metal Plant

The American Society of Mechanical Engineers, Warren-Jamestown subsection, will tour the Art Metal "New Plant," Baker st. ext., Jamestown, next Wednesday. The tour starts at 5:30 p. m. A question-and-answer period will follow the tour. Members will dine in Lakewood about 7:30 p. m.

Old Pittsfield School Will Be Head Start Center

Plans are afoot to give the old brick four-roomed school house at Pittsfield a new lease on life. It is to become the Head Start center for Warren and Forest counties.

The sturdy two-floor structure was built in 1912 when a previous school house burned down. It has been standing empty and unused in its sizeable yard since 1963 when the present larger Pittsfield elementary school was opened. At that time ownership of the old building was turned over by the school authorities to the Pittsfield Township supervisors. Now, by arrangement with the supervisors, the building is to be operated by the Warren-Forest Counties Office of Economic Opportunity, which has been looking for suitable premises for the Head Start program since last winter.

The program was originally housed in the Youngsville elementary school, both then it was an eight-week summertime session and, for a while, after it was changed to an eight-months schedule. Because the school facilities were needed for an increased regular student enrollment, the program then operated temporarily at the Youngsville E.U.B. church.

Now, Head Start's housing worries appear to have been solved. The OEO has arranged with the township supervisors to use the structurally sound old school building rent free for a year, with the option to renew the agreement at the end of that time. The supervisors have hired contractors to change the old coal forced air heating system to gas, and put in a new water system and electrical service. Boys of the Blue Jay Job Corps camp are to paint the interior next weekend. The OEO will pick up the estimated $3,000 tab for the improvements.

Carl Durlin, one of the supervisors, told the Times-Mirror and Observer: "We voted unanimously to let the OEO use the building for as long as they want it. However, it will still be available to us for community activities if necessary." No date has been set yet for the resumption of Head Start. Mrs. Jeanne L. Tonkin, Head Start supervisor, said yesterday that about thirty children are currently on the list, with their parents -- sufficient for two classes.

"There will be more by the time we are ready to start," said Mrs. Tonkin. "We have our teachers and aides, but we will need a lot of volunteer helpers from the Pittsfield area." She said an appeal for equipment has already produced old large tires for use as sandboxes in the playground, a sliding board, and a mangle.

"I don't quite know at the moment how we will use the mangle," Mrs. Tonkin confessed. "But we will find a use for it. We need old blankets or quilts that can be cut and sewn to cot size, for the youngsters' nap periods. We'll probably need the mangle for that job. And we need a sewing machine too."

Other requirements are a stove, refrigerator, and items of cooking equipment for use in the basement kitchen-dining area, which was formerly the school cafeteria.

Mrs. Tonkin added that "toys are also always welcome -- and so are people who will volunteer to repair them!" The main function of Head Start is to help small children who have had little or no social contact to become adjusted to a wider world, so that when they start school they will be more ready to start learning. Parents of the children participate in the program so that they may understand what the goals are, and be prepared to cooperate in the educational process.

The sessions last four hours, five days a week, with a snack and a hot lunch being provided. Mrs. Tonkin said it was hoped that after the old school building is restored to usable condition, community uses may be found for it in addition to Head Start.

"It is a very nice building. We are delighted that we are going to be able to use it. And it has a lot of potentialities -- maybe for sewing classes, recreational purposes, all kinds of things," she said.

Persons with items to donate to the project may call Mrs. Tonkin at 723-1712.

If you're planning to replenish that liquor supply for over the weekend don't plan to do it on Saturday. Since it is Columbus Day and a holiday for state employees, the area liquor stores will be closed. As for court house transactions, better take care of that Thursday because offices will close Friday (also in observance of Columbus Day).

The Salvation Army Canteen was in service from 6:30-10:30 p.m. Sunday at Hearts Content to aid in the search for lost children. The canteen was manned by Capt. Albert P. Carter, assisted by Mrs. Robert Covell Sr. with Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Herbert Riquier as backups. There were 260 cups of coffee, Kool-Aid and milk served along with sandwiches, doughnuts, cakes, pies, etc. donated by A & P Store. The Salvation Army joins with the parents in rejoicing the safe return of the nine youngsters.

Warren Relief Association, with seven members present, met Tuesday morning to review cases. It was reported that milk bottle collections were the best in many months and association members expressed the hope the trend would continue. Present at the session were Mrs. Thomas Barratt, Mrs. Richard Meacham, Mrs. John Huey, Mrs. Thayne Sandoz, Mrs. Albert Mitchell, Mrs. Joseph DeFrees, president and Mrs. Clifford Knowlton. The next meeting is Nov. 12.

It is reported that a group of youths invaded the municipal building Monday evening to "air" their views before borough council. They were advised that council does not convene for another week.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Richard E. Hegerly and Deputy Douglas Irvine were in Erie Tuesday to attend the FBI-sponsored institute on Arrest, Search and Seizure, one of many such schools being conducted throughout the country this month.

Mrs. Richard C. Frame was elected president of the Republican Women's Club of Venango County at a meeting held Monday evening. The group voted to donate $100 for Republican headquarters in Franklin and Oil City.

Gunman Sought

ERIE — Police went to Sears Roebuck Co., 134 E. 10th St., after a man was reportedly seen with a gun in the basement of the department store Monday night.

According to Capt. John Hill, the man purchased shells for the gun, either a .22 pistol or revolver, at the store. A few minutes later a clerk reported seeing the man in the men's room trying to fit the shells into the gun. The man ran off, Hill said, and police were called.

Concert Season Opens With Delightful Performance

By WALT ERBLAND

The Warren Concert Series opened its season Monday night with a delightful performance by the Storck Duo, an unusual combination of cello and harp featuring Klaus and Helga Storck of Germany.

The Harp and cello combination is not often heard, to which may be added in light of the Storcks' performance, not often enough. The depth and richness of the cello sound and the light airy tones of the harp mix splendidly and permit a wide range of tonal effects.

The accomplished touch of Klaus Storck was evident in his performance on the cello of four pieces from Johann Sebastian Bach's "Sixth Suite." Storck's variation of tonal coloration and the compositional use of moving voices insured the triumph of one of the desired effects of such a piece -- namely that the music sound like the performance of an ensemble rather than the work of a single performer.

The "Sixth Suite" was originally written for a five-stringed instrument and not the four stringed cello. It is not unusual for virtuosos to perform music composed for one instrument on a different more limited instrument. Their ability to overcome the built-in technical difficulties adds that much more to the brilliance of the performance.

Helga Storck's solo performance was Gabriel Faure's "Impromptu for Harp in D-flat Major." Faure sought elegance in lyrical simplicity and achieved a light hearted charm redolent of a sunny afternoon. Mrs. Storck's performance of the Impromptu had all these qualities. Refined and restrained her technique bore the hallmark of the virtuoso -- the ability to make the difficult appear simple.

Also on the program were a nocturne by Jean Louis Dupont and "Sonata Concertante in A-flat Major" by Ludwig Spohr. Both men lived during the period that saw the romantic gain ascendance over the strictly classical. Dupont, a cellist himself, born in the middle of the 18th Century leaned more heavily toward the classical, but the nocturne, basically a romantic genre, has blended into it some emotional lyricism. Spohr's use of the romantic and classical in the sonata is more of a juxtaposition than a blend. His tendency to end one phrase in Mozartian fashion and then launch into another in an early von Suppe style is humorous if not strictly legitimate for the period. The second movement of the sonata, a larghetto, is more evenly constructed than the first and third.

The program opened with two movements by Luigi Boccherini for cello with a basso continuo accompaniment. The accompaniment, usually reserved for the harpsichord, was satisfying though different when played on the harp.

Cardinals Go With Ray Washburn As They Try To Wrap Up Series

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The World Series returns to spacious Busch Stadium for a sixth game Wednesday with Ray Washburn trying to close it out for the St. Louis Cardinals against Denny McLain, Joe Sparda or Earl Wilson of the Detroit Tigers.

Mayo Smith, Manager of the Tigers, said he would not reveal the name of his starter until after he reached the ball park Wednesday morning. The Tigers had remained in Detroit for a final drill at Tiger Stadium Tuesday morning before Sparda, who has been in and out of Manager Smith's doghouse while compiling a 10-10 record, had been bombed in a brief relief stint in the fourth game. Wilson, plagued by injuries during a 13-12 season and loser of the third game, said it was up to Smith if he wanted to use him. Wilson, 33, pulled a hamstring muscle in his right leg in that losing effort but threw for 10 minutes with his leg taped and said it felt much better.

Leading by three games to two, the Cardinals need only to win one of two at home to become the first National League team to win two straight Series since the 1921-22 New York Giants.

The Cards worked out in Busch Stadium on Tuesday, confident they could wrap it up.

Long lines of fans waited all night to be on hand for the sale of 4,000 bleacher tickets at $2 each. They were quickly sold out.

Washburn is the 30-year-old right hander who had a 14-8 season and then won the third game Saturday 7-3, although knocked out in the sixth inning. He has made a fine comeback from shoulder trouble that kept him on the disabled list during most of the 1964 season.

The big offensive star of the Series, of course, is Lou Brock, the Cards' speedy bullet. Brock is hitting .524 for the Series with 11 hits in 21 at bats and already has tied his own record with seven stolen bases and equalled the all time Series record of 14 stolen bases. His current all Series batting average of .400 tops the record set by Home Run Baker in six Series from 1910 to 1922.

'Dead Body' Is Ready To Pitch

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A Dead Body the St. Louis Cardinals refused to leave behind hopes to make the big kill in the 1968 World Series.

Ray Washburn, whose nickname, Dead Body, seemed appropriately maudlin when his pitching arm gave out five years ago, goes after the Series clincher for the Cardinals in Wednesday's sixth game against Detroit.

"You've got to give him a lot of credit for coming back the way he did."

After winning 30 games in three previous years, Washburn recorded a 14-8 mark in 1968 and pitched a no-hitter against San Francisco. He won his first Series start 7-3 last Saturday with relief help from Joe Hoerner.

Signed for a $50,000 bonus in 1960, Washburn won 12 games for the Cards in 1962, his rookie season. The following spring he reeled off five straight complete game victories before the injury left his arm dead.

Washburn, a quiet, 30-year-old from Kirland, Wash., was stuck with the Dead Body nickname after Ray Sadecki tagged him with it in his rookie year.

"He used to go around with his arms folded across his chest all the time," Tim McCarver recalled. "He'd stand around the outfield that way and it'd look like he was always about to fall down."

"Put a ball in his hands, though, and he's no dead body. He's a vicious competitor. If he's got his control tomorrow, he's gonna be real tough."

Rams Are Tops In NFL Totals

NEW YORK (AP) — Unfortunately for the rest of the National Football League, the Los Angeles Rams keep their word.

"Never fear; we'll be ready in time," promised all league defensive end Deacon Jones after the Rams yielded 151 points in six exhibition games, only 47 fewer than they surrendered in the entire 1967 regular season.

As the unbeaten (4-0) Rams prepare for their Sunday showdown with the Green Bay Packers, they lead the NFL in nine defensive categories:

Fewest points allowed, 39; fewest yards allowed, 786; fewest yards rushing allowed, 259; fewest yards allowed per rushing play, 2.8; fewest yards passing allowed, 527; lowest completion percentage allowed, 43.5; most times opposing passer tackled, 18; most yards opposing passer thrown, 143; fewest touchdowns allowed, four.

WHO'S PITCHING? Mayo Can't Tell Until Game Time

DETROIT (AP) — Manager Mayo Smith said Tuesday Denny McLain, Earl Wilson or Joe Sparda will pitch the sixth game of the World Series for Detroit, but he won't announce his choice until he gets to the ball park Wednesday.

At the same time, McLain, the 31 game winner who has lost both his Series starts, disclosed he had a cortisone shot Monday to relieve the inflammation in his right shoulder.

"I haven't made up my mind, and I'm really not leaning any way right now," Smith said after the Tigers held a brief workout before flying to St. Louis for the sixth game. The Cardinals lead three games to two.

"But even if I make up my mind later today, I won't announce it until tomorrow after I get to the park."

Smith's decision is complicated by physical problems encountered by McLain and Wilson.

Wilson started Saturday's third game but pulled a hamstring muscle in the back of his right leg. McLain, who pitched in last Wednesday's opener and again Sunday, had complained of a sore shoulder.

But after throwing for 13 minutes Tuesday, McLain told coach Hal Naragon, "I haven't been able to do this for two months."

The 24-year-old right-hander referred to the way he popped the ball into Naragon's glove while warming up.

"It feels real good," McLain said afterward. "I'm ready to go tomorrow if he wants me to."

Discussing the cortisone shot, which he had Monday after having the maximum X-ray treatments his shoulder could take, McLain said:

"I took it only so I could pitch in the Series. Otherwise I wouldn't have done it. I despise needles, especially one that long."

If Denny goes Wednesday, it would be with just two days rest, something he's done three times this year. And he won all three games.

"It probably would be my last time out this year so I'd give it all I had for as long as I could," he added.

Wilson threw for 10 minutes and said his leg felt much better than it had Monday. He didn't, however, seem as optimistic as McLain.

Sparda is the only one of the three who hasn't had any ailments, but he also probably would pitch only if the other two couldn't.

"Mayo told me earlier if someone got hurt, I would be the fourth pitcher, but he hasn't said anything about tomorrow," Sparda said.

Mickey Lolich, meanwhile, was mentioned as a distinct possibility to start the seventh game if there is one.

Pitcher in the Tigers' only two victories, Lolich said he hasn't started with only two days' rest this season but "if he wants me to pitch on Thursday, if it goes that far, I'll be there."

Purdue got 35 of 37 first place votes in this week's balloting and piled up 736 points to 660 for Southern California and 492 for Penn State. The latter two teams both received one first place vote as the top

Griffin Won't Name Twin Bss

MINNEAPOLIS ST. PAUL (AP) — Minnesota Twins President Calvin Griffith said he met Tuesday with Billy Martin, but they did not discuss formally the vacant managerial post on the American League baseball team.

Griffith said he met with Martin and other Twins officials on the list of 15 untouchable players for the upcoming baseball expansion draft. The list has to be sent to the American League Wednesday.

Seattle and Kansas City will draft players from the 10 American League clubs to field their own teams for the 1969 season. Each established team can protect 15 players.

Griffith said Martin managed some of the players the Twins might protect at Denver during the 1968 Pacific Coast League season.

Griffith said the Twins definitely have decided to protect these players: Harmon Killebrew, Tony Oliva, Rod Carew, and Fred Uhlendor.

The complete list of protected players will not be made public, he said.

U.S. Olympians In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The United States team in the 1968 Olympic Games opening Saturday swelled to the full complement of 393 Tuesday with the arrival of the star-studded swimming team and members of the weightlifting and wrestling squads.

In the group were 68 swimmers—39 men and 29 women—given a good chance of carrying off at least 20 gold medals in the competition which runs from Oct. 17 to Oct. 26.

Swimming ends the day before the curtain is lowered in this colorful international competition which has attracted a record number of more than 7,000 athletes from 117 nations.

400 Meter Relay Team Is Picked

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The composition and running order of the United States 400-meter Olympic relay team was announced Tuesday by head coach Payton Jordan.

There were no surprises in the formation of the quartet but order in which they will carry the baton around the track caused raised eyebrows.

Leadoff man will be Charlie Greene, followed by Mel Pender, Ronnie Ray Smith with Jimmy Hines as anchor. The surprise was Greene as the starter.

"We know Pender has the best start of the four," explained Jordan, "but Greene has had limited experience in relay running. Coach Stan Wright (in charge of sprinters) and I decided it would be safest to let Charlie run first to eliminate one baton exchange. And don't forget, he's not a bad starter, himself."

It has been a well kept secret but the quartet, in its final workout at South Lake Tahoe, Calif., last Wednesday, sped the distance in 38.4, which is six tenths of a second under listed world record and two tenths under the pending mark of 38.6 set by the University of Southern California in 1967.

Swimmers Look For 20 Medals

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The last panel of the strong United States Olympic team, headed by the world record-smashing swimmers, arrived Tuesday on a chartered air liner.

The swimming team included 32 men and 29 girls. From this elite group, the U.S.A. is expected to win at least 20 of the 29 gold medals and a harvest of silver and bronze medals, too. Some of the men were suffering from colds and sore throats but Coach George Haines of Santa Clara, Calif., said he expected them to be all right in a few days.

Corry Elks Win Match

CORRY.—The Corry Elks Club at its revenge over the week-end with a 64-stroke victory over the Warren Elks in a return match at the Corry Country Club. Warren's Elks had won the first encounter earlier in season.

Bill Simonsen of Warren and Corry's Ed Kaiser deadlocked 82 for low gross honors, in each golfer taking home jacket for his efforts.

Low Net produced a deadlock well, with Warren's John Gara and Corry's Bob Shill-knotting at 72. Shag bags were the prizes awarded.

Earning two balls in low net were Jack Wells, 73, Don McCray, 75, Carl Peterson, 76, Beckwith, 76, and Skip Moore, 76, of Corry.

Warren's low netters behind Gara were John Guthrie, 73, George Anderson, 74, and Jeff Murer 74.

Chuck Irvin took the longest drive prize of three balls, while Corry's Al Morrison won dubious distinction of short-drive. These were awarded on the No. 9 hole.

Jack Nosel and Pat Castano of Warren tied for the highest score at 120, while Ed Moore one hosts was one under then at 119.

In Knipp of Corry was awarded two balls for being the "best looking golfer after 18 holes."

Tdioute Edges Peasantville

PEASANTVILLE — Ed Vincels single in the third inning scored Bill Shields with the only run of the game, but Vincels made it hold up as he scored five hits to lead Tdioute to a 1-0 scholastic base-batwin over Peasantville here Tuesday.

A victory knots Tdioute with Peasantville in the UWWL standings. Both squads sport 3-4 records.

IOC Retains Brundage

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The International Olympic Committee Tuesday decided that Avery Brundage, president of the IOC, would remain in office until the end of the Mexico Games — even if he is unseated at Thursday's election.

The president, one vice president and one member of the Executive Board are due to be elected Thursday.

"It was agreed that present members of the Executive Board will remain in office until the end of these Games even if they are not reelected," Lord Killanin, a member of the Executive Board, told newsmen after Tuesday's meeting. The 81 year old Brundage of Chicago has been president of the IOC since 1952.

Boosters Meet At 8:00 Tonight

Meeting time has been advanced to 8:00 p.m. for tonight's Warren Sports Boosters School cafeteria, announced John Smith, Booster president.

The reason for the half-hour move is that the Boosters have secured a film featuring National Football League highlights, and plan to show the film after the regular meeting.

During the planned session, Dragon coach Toby Shea and his staff will be on hand to answer questions and narrate films of last week's Warren-Meadville game.

The Board Of Directors of the Boosters will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Mrs. Olga Connolly, who won the discus gold medal for her native Czechoslovakia in 1956, was greeted by her hammer throwing husband, Hal Connolly. Both will be competing in the Olympics for the fourth time.

Tennis Players Get No Medals

NEW YORK (AP) — Six American players will participate in the Olympic Games Tennis Tournament later this month, it was announced Tuesday by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association.

The men are Herb FitzGibbon of Garden City, N. Y., Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., and Jim Osborne of Honolulu.

Peaches Bartkowicz of Hamtramck, Mich., Valerie Ziegen-guss of San Diego, Calif., and Julie Heldman of New York will play in the women's tournament.

The Games tennis tourney is classified as a demonstration sport and no medals will be awarded.

There were numerous soldiers stationed at key points around the stadium but there was little talk of the disturbances which rocked this beautiful city a week ago.

Meantime, other American teams were out for daily workouts in areas surrounding spacious Olympic Village. Coach Hank Ibe's basketball squad staged a secret practice at the beautiful copper domed stadium. The United States never has lost a game in Olympic competition.

As workmen put the finishing touches on the big main stadium, the U.S. track and field team worked out on the practice track located adjacent to Olympic Village.

There were numerous soldiers stationed at key points around the stadium but there was little talk of the disturbances which rocked this beautiful city a week ago.

Kane Legion Camp Levelled

KANE—The American Legion Camp, owned by L. Raymond A. Nicolas Post of American Legion here and located near Brookston along Route 948, 17 miles from Kane, has been completely destroyed by fire, along with its contents.

Members of the post were advised of the fire by an area resident who works near Sheffield. He observed smoke last Tuesday, but when he saw the place had been leveled he assumed fire units and the local post were aware of the blaze.

The camp was formerly a farmhouse, a two-story frame building and was owned by the post for a score of years. It was completely furnished with porch and lawn furniture stored inside.

Up to this year the camp had been used by Boy Scouts and numerous other organizations, but contamination of the well supplying the camp had resulted in the place not being used. Cause of the fire is unknown. Post members checked the site over the weekend, reporting everything destroyed in the fire. Loss is partially covered by insurance.

BILLIE JOE LEAPS OUT

GREENWOOD, Miss. (AP)—The Leflore County board of supervisors has had its fill of Billie Joe McAllister.

A new ordinance makes it illegal to jump from the Tallahatchie Bridge—or any other bridge in the county—in imitation of the character in the song, "Ode to Billie Joe." Violation of the ordinance carries a fine of up to $180.

An estimated 40 to 50 youngsters have leaped from the bridge 20 feet above the Tallahatchie River since the song by former Mississippian Bobbie Gentry came out. But unlike Billie Joe, none of the youngsters has met death.

Market Takes Modest Setback

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market Tuesday underwent its third straight day of correction following an almost week of gains.

Volume was 14 million shares compared with 12.42 million Monday.

The Dow Jones industrial average slipped .44 to 956.24, a minor loss.

The market advanced tentatively in the morning, but the bullish segment of Wall Street did not follow along and the list fell off as soon as sporadic profits were taken.

Unlike the two previous sessions, there was not enough investment demand to spur blue chips while the over-all list was sinking. Nevertheless, analysts regarded the action as a salutary process which might pave the way for renewed attack on the mythical goal of "Dow 1,000" narrowly missed in February 1966, before that year's plunge.

Of 1,578 issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, 770 declined and 570 advanced. New highs for the year totaled 81 and new lows 6.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks dipped .3 to 355.9 from Monday's 1968 high, with industrials bucking the trend with a gain of .9 to a new high.

Bowen Attends Sales Meeting

CLEVELAND, Ohio — Robert A. Bowen of Bowen White Truck, Inc., 1812 Penna. ave. west, Warren, has returned from Cleveland, Ohio where he attended the national sales meeting of the White Truck Division of White Motor Corporation and the long awaited announcement of White's "XRL" Model Series.

for the year, rails down a solid 1.2 and utilities unchanged.

The underlying optimism of the market was reflected by the list of 15 most-active stocks, of which 10 rose while 5 fell.

C.I.T. Financial was the most-active stock, advancing 4 1/2 to 58 1/2 on 278,800 shares. Analysts said that Wall Street was continuing its procedure of reassessing the chances of the proposed merger with Xerox, which still has to go through some hurdles before its possible consummation some months in the future. The proposed exchange of shares is on the basis of one share of Xerox for each 3 1/2 shares of C.I.T.

Xerox slipped 3 1/4 to 27 1/4 in relative quiet trading.

Prices declined on the American Stock Exchange. Volume was 6.41 million shares compared with 6.34 million Monday. The exchange's index lost 8 cents at $30.60.

FROM NORTH TO SOUTH

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Wheat of Memphis claim they've seen both ends of the United States within a short time.

Last year they drove to Alaska and on to the northern end of the Steese Highway at Circle, the most northern point you can drive to in the United States. This summer they drove to the southern dead end—at the tip of Key West, Fla.

Method of Awarding State Scholarships Questioned

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A leading American educator Tuesday forecast the possibility of a campus reaction across the country against student activists who disrupt college and university functions.

Dr. Otis A. Singletary, executive vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Texas, said in an interview that heretofore silent students in the moderate center who feel their rights to an education are being denied in the confrontation between activists and administrators may insist on being heard.

"A general backlash from these students is possible," Singletary said. "There are many signs of a strong reaction on the part of the great mass of moderate students against disruption on the campus."

Singletary later addressed a special meeting in Denver of college and university trustees and regents called to consider the crisis on American campuses stirred by student activism.

The meeting is sponsored by the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges, composed of the people who control the purse strings of American higher education. Some 200 college and university trustees are attending the conference to hear opinions from college administrators and from student activists themselves.

Singletary told the trustees student activists can be broken down into three categories: 1. Radicals who genuinely believe American society and institutions are corrupt and should be done away with; 2. Liberal reformers not opposed to the American system as such but in favor of specific changes in college and university functions; 3. Black students concerned with specific demands for the Negro on campus and in the American society.

"The great majority of American students," Singletary said, "are not activist about anything."

He said that the activists are likely to have their greatest impact in the field of liberal reform of university and college institutions.

"In any case," he added, "my best advice in present circumstances is to get ready for trouble."

Only hours before Singletary spoke, a student group at the University of Colorado in nearby Boulder offered evidence that his prophecy of a student counter movement may come true.

The group, calling itself NEVER for "New Emergency Against Violence and Expressive Revolution," staged a walk-out at a meeting of the radical Student Democratic Society (SDS).

Leader of the group, 22-year-old Harry Margolis of Cranford, N.J., said members of the newly formed association are "tired of the violence on campus and tired of violent groups on campus."

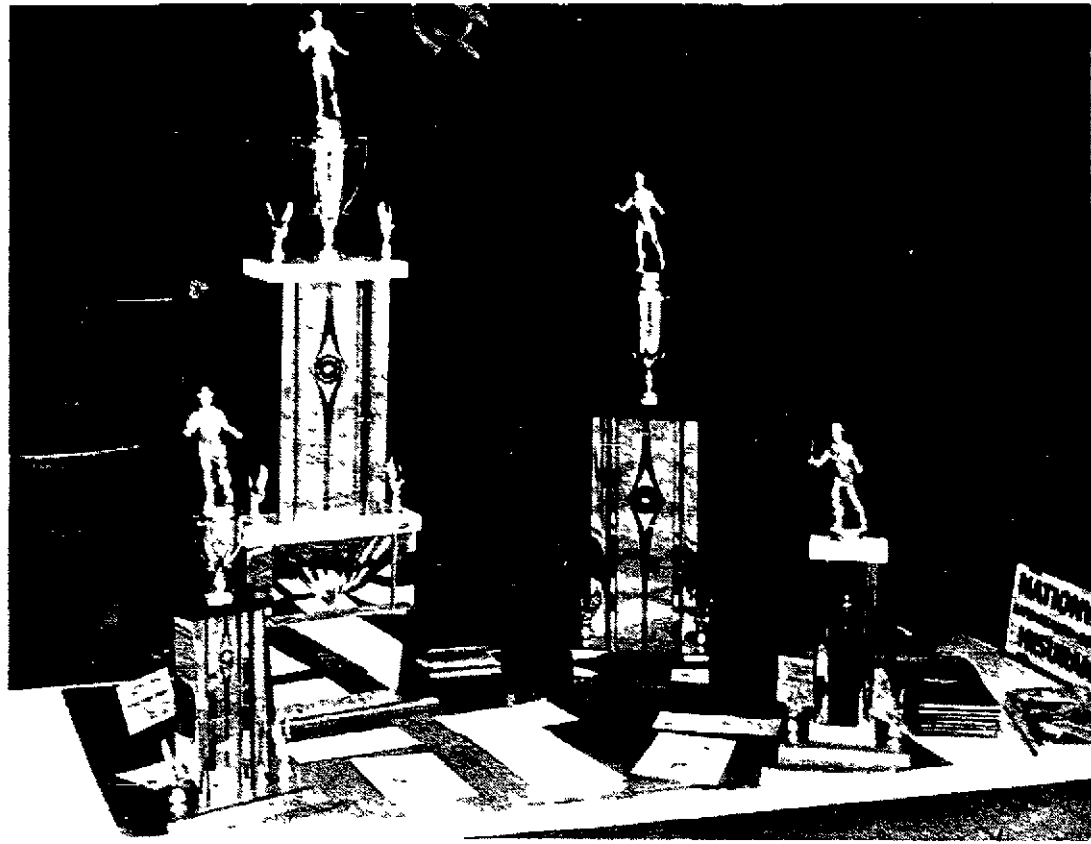

Driver Hurt In One-Car Accident

CORRY—Alan L. Mierke, 45, Findlay Lake, N.Y., was listed in fair condition at Corry Memorial Hospital Tuesday with injuries suffered in a one-car accident on Route 426.

State police of the Corry substation said Mierke was driving north on 426 at 12:15 a.m. Tuesday when he missed a left curve in the road.

The car went off the right side of the highway, skidded 150 feet along the berm, struck a tree on the left side of the road and overturned.

Mierke sustained multiple injuries, police said. The accident occurred about three miles north of Corry.

FISHING TOURNAMENT TROPHIES

Trophies to be awarded in the 1969 annual Fishing Tournament at Tidioute are on display in Bill Allen's window in Tidioute. This event, which generates great interest and draws sportsmen from as far away as Illinois and Virginia, begins Saturday, Oct. 14.

New Rules Set for Annual State Fishing Tournament at Tidioute

Tidioute -- Here in the heart of superb fishing and hunting country, the historical little town of Tidioute puts its welcome mat out for the ninth annual Pennsylvania State Fishing Championship Tournament on the weekend of Oct. 12-13.

For the first time since it was inaugurated here in 1960, the rules have been changed so that everyone who enters may compete on both days of the tournament, Saturday, Oct. 12 and Sunday, Oct. 13. Another innovation is the greatly extended fishing area on the Allegheny River, which starts at the Kinzua Dam, Warren County, and ends at the Hunter Station Bridge below Tionesta in Forest County.

Also, this year referees have been eliminated for Sunday fishing, together with the very early starting hour on Sunday. Anglers will be on their own, but only fish which they take to tourney headquarters (The Tidioute Water Company office) will be checked for possible winners.

The person who earns the most points on Saturday and/or Sunday will be crowned King of Pennsylvania Fishermen, and be eligible to represent Pennsylvania in any national or international contest. Also, he receives a prize of $150, plus the first place trophy. Winners of 2nd, 3rd, and 4th places will receive handsome trophies.

Rules for Saturday, Oct. 12 are: Fishing hours will be from 12 a.m. to 10 p.m. All fish caught must be registered at headquarters by 10 p.m. Saturday night. These fish will be weighed, tagged, and kept on ice until the close of the contest on Sunday.

Prizes will be awarded on Saturday, Oct. 12 at 10 p.m. at headquarters as follows: $25 for the largest fish in each of the four later named categories; $15 will go to the owners of the second largest fish by weight in each of the four categories. Judges for both days will be members of the Pennsylvania Fish Commission.

Sunday rules are: Fishing may start at any time but all fish caught must be brought to tourney headquarters between 12 noon and 2 p.m. Judges will then total each contestant's points for both days. In case of a tie, the total length of Sunday's catch will decide who the King is to be. Awards will be made shortly after 2 p.m. at headquarters.

Points for the four eligible species of fish to be caught only in the Allegheny River in the designated area also are changed this year as follows: Muskellunge -- 10 points; Northern Pike -- 8 points; Walleye -- 4 points; Black Bass -- 2 points.

The tournament is open to residents of any state who wish to enter. Pennsylvania fishing regulations will be enforced. All contestants fish at their own risk. Tidioute Area Chamber of Commerce, the sponsor, assumes no responsibility for accidents, injuries, or loss of or to property. There is no entry fee.

There will be entertainment for wives and children on Saturday. To feed the hungry, chicken barbecue and fish fry dinners and a Smorgasbord will be served on Saturday. Two local restaurants will be open both days. Overnight lodging is available in hotels, motels and private homes. There is ample space for campers, trailers, and tents.

Anyone wishing more details should contact James King, tourney manager at Tidioute -- 814-484-3333 -- during business hours.

Three young women teachers from Beatty Junior High School spent this past summer studying and touring Europe.

Miss Mary Ellen Beedy, occupational education teacher and Miss Marjorie Johnson, English teacher, were part of a group of Edinboro State College graduate students who studied in England at Anglo-American College.

Miss Martha C. Peed, on the other hand, also an English teacher at Beatty, chaperoned a six-week travel-study group through Europe. The group, consisting of Dorothy Ball, Debra Punsley, Laura Grotsinger, Amy Harbert, Marilyn Sallack, and Keith Proud, all of Warren Area High School, attended courses in literature, history, politics and government at Oxford University.

Miss Beedy and Miss Johnson studied Shakespeare, Elizabethan and Jacobean Drama and Development of the Novel. The college at which they studied is located on a small estate in Alverstoke, England, about 20 miles from Oxford and 70 miles from London.

The Misses, aside from studying, were given ample opportunity to tour the English countryside and visit the many historical sites in London.

Both agreed that the pace of living in England is slower and the people appear to be less bothered about the every day trials of life.

They were impressed by the English, whom they agreed are quite different from the stereotype version. "We had always been made to believe that the English people are very cold and snobbish and were pleasantly surprised to find them really friendly."

Invariably the conversation got around to world affairs, and both girls were hardpressed to explain America's Vietnam involvement. "The feeling against the Vietnam War was very strong," they said.

Their mode of dress created quite a stir while touring London, they said. "Even though we were wearing our skirts shorter than we normally would, we still appeared to be conservative by comparison."

Both girls disliked the amount of rain which fell during their stay but agreed that the beautiful green countryside couldn't have been possible without the precipitation. Bicycling through this countryside and stopping off at a wayside restaurant for tea, English style, was one of their most popular pastimes.

Besides the Edinboro group, there were students from Finland, Sweden, France, Germany, and Turkey also at the college. During the winter the college is attended by American and English students.

At the end of the five weeks, Miss Beedy and Miss Johnson visited Calais, France, but cut their visit short to return to England prior to returning home.

The tour chaperoned by Miss Peed included sight-seeing tours of Paris and Versailles, London, Stratford-on-Avon, Cambridge University and Gloucester.

The program was sponsored by Travel Study International and included 850 U.S. and Canadian students enrolled in studies in France, Spain and England. Miss Peed's group traveled from Montreal to France aboard the SS Maasdam and returned to Philadelphia by jet airliner.

UF Leaders Expect Large Volunteer Worker Turnout

United Fund leaders are hopeful for a large return today in the reports of volunteer workers who are attempting to raise the 1968 goal of $177,050 for the support of the ten participating agencies.

Five of the seven campaign divisions will be reporting at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the Red Cross headquarters, 404 Market street, according to C. L. Christensen, general chairman.

The other two divisions, residential and county, received their materials Tuesday morning at a kick-off fashion show in the YWCA and will make their reports next week.

This afternoon's report session is the first for the commercial, professional and public service divisions. It is the second for the industrial and special gifts divisions which one week ago turned in $92,- 245 which is 52 per cent of the goal.

Workers in all of the reporting divisions today are asked to turn in all available gifts and pledges even if their report is incomplete. Any worker who cannot be at the afternoon meeting should turn in his reports to his captain or to headquarters before 3 p.m.

In order to reach the goal this fall, gifts must average 7 per cent higher than a year ago and donors are asked to consider this when deciding on their gift.

The agencies supported by the United Fund of Warren County include the Visiting Nurses Association, Warren Relief Association, Family Service and Children's Aid, YWCA, YMCA, the Salvation Army, U.S.O., Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and the Warren County Chapter, Red Cross.

Grand Jury Makes Firearms Recommendation

The October grand jury on Monday toured both the court house and Rouse Hospital facilities.

It was recommended that only experienced and qualified persons be permitted to handle any firearm in the jury room or any area of the court house.

The jury noted that due to many questionable areas in regard to fire protection and equipment in the jail section, an inspection be made by a disinterested, qualified person with findings to be made part of the public record and the grand jury's recommendation.

Particular attention was paid to the escape door from the third floor of the jail quarters to the tower which cannot, the jury stated, be opened from the inside without the proper key and would fall as an escape route in event of fire. The jury said double locking should be eliminated.

The Rouse Hospital staff was complimented for its excellent housekeeping, cleanliness and administration at the facility.

Recommended was an investigation by a qualified heating engineer of the air and heat circulation at the home to ascertain if patient room areas are adequate and comfortably heated. The engineer, the jury suggested, should also see that maintenance personnel be properly instructed in operation of same.

Also recommended was the razing of the old boiler room, creamery and evacuated men's building with plans developed for additional bed capacity and other related facilities. These plans, the jury stated, should be made immediately on a long term loan basis, thus eliminating a need for millage increase.

It was further recommended that planning and construction as soon as possible to fill a need for Warren County at a cost that would be considerably under that of a few years hence in view of fast-rising hospital type building costs.

In approving indictments, the grand jury dismissed none presented by the district attorney and approved four, including that against Archie Rosenberg, Jr., RD 1, Grand Valley, charged with two counts of defrauding an innkeeper. Rosenberg pleaded not guilty to the charges in open court arraignment last month.

Wendell O. Lawson was jury foreman; Anna B. Farnsworth, secretary.

Ann Landers

Answers Your Problems

DEAR ANN LANDERS: This is a dream job - wonderful pay, great hours, ideally located, fine people and I enjoy my work tremendously.

Last week I was promoted. I am now the private secretary to the Executive Vice President of the company. Mr. Z is very pleasant, though somewhat reserved. His civic and church activities are indeed commendable. He has a fine wife and four attractive children.

Monday when I straightened out his desk drawer I found pornographic pictures and obscene literature that knocked my eyes out. I never knew such filth existed. My face was red all morning. I couldn't keep my mind on my work.

When Mr. Z called me in for dictation at 11:30 a.m., he thanked me for straightening his desk drawers. No mention was made of the material which he knows I saw.

Now I'm uncomfortable around him and don't know what to do about it. Can you advise me? -- STILL BLUSHING

DEAR STILL: Stop blushing. There's nothing to do. The boss' taste in "literature and art" should be of no concern to you. Continue to sharpen those pencils, Honey, and ignore his adolescent, self-titillating techniques.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: My sister and I are the youngest of a large family. We are both teen-age girls. Our problem is 10 nieces and nephews under nine years of age. Ever since we have been 12 years old we've been expected to babysit without pay. We aren't asked -- we are told.

Our mother makes these commitments and no matter what else we have planned, we must cancel because, according to mother, "family comes first."

Both my sister and I have had to pass up some groovy school parties and interesting dates because of mother's insistence. She is a great fan of yours, Ann, and we are hoping you will print this letter and set her straight -- or us -- whoever needs it. -- BITTER AND RESENTFUL

DEAR B AND R: Teen-agers should not be drafted to sit for relatives. This creates hostility which can turn into full-blown hatred. Some teens offer to sit for members of the family because they want to be of service, but to be forced to do so -- without pay yet -- is unfair and I hope your mother will rethink this whole situation.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: You are supposed to run a lovelorn column but you keep sticking your nose into things that are out of your line. I'm sick of your telling mothers their kids are disturbed when what they really need is an old-fashioned crack in the mouth.

I raised five and never took a minute's lip off any of them. All this modern psychology is bunk. People like you do more harm than good. Print this if you dare. -- WOODSHED FATHER

DEAR WOOD: I don't believe in permissive upbringing and have said so repeatedly.

Cracking a child in the mouth may be a convenient release for dad's bottled tensions but it doesn't do much good for the child, and you can bet on it. Nature provided better places to crack a kid.

Unsure of yourself on dates? What's right? What's wrong? Should you? Shouldn't you? Send for Ann Landers' booklet "Dating Do's and Don'ts," enclosing with your request 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Wedding Vows Exchanged In Frewsburg Methodist Church

MR. AND MRS. MILLARD F. BULLOCK
(Sandquist, Jamestown)

Margaret L. Wiltzie and Millard F. Bullock exchanged their wedding vows in a double ring nuptial service solemnized in the Frewsburg Methodist Church. The Rev. DeWayne Cunningham, pastor, officiated in the presence of approximately two hundred wedding guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Clark Wiltzie of 347 Wiltzie road, Frewsburg, N.Y., and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bullock of 29 High street, Clarendon.

Wedding music was provided by Mrs. Ruth Titchner, organist, and Harry Adams, vocal soloist. Candelabra with lighted tapers and arrangements of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and carnations ornamented the altar.

Escorted on the arm of her father, the bride wore a long bridal gown of white slipper satin, styled with molded bodice and long sleeves tapering to wedding points. The scoop neckline of the dress was outlined with rose Alencon lace appliques and sequins, which also highlighted the softly pleated skirt. The detachable train, secured at the waist with dainty bows at front and back was highlighted with a single applique of the lace. The bride fashioned her own wedding gown. Her bouffant fingertip veil of silk illusion, also designed and fashioned by the bride, was secured by a circular crown of pearls and iridescents. She carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations and ivy.

The matron of honor for her sister was Mrs. Dorothy Waite of Frewsburg in a mint green floral dress of satin brocade with velvet moss green tie belt, and matching looped bow head-dress with butterfly veil. Her flowers were white and green tipped pompon chrysanthemums. Attired similarly, in yellow gowns with gold velvet accent, were the bridesmaids, Miss Linda Bennett of Canandaigua, N.Y., Miss Cynthia Erickson of Busti, N.Y., and Mrs. Marjorie Brew of Allegheny, N.Y. Their ensembles were also the creation of the bride. They carried bouquets of white and yellow tipped pompon chrysanthemums. Mistress Lisa Bullock, niece of the groom, was the flowergirl in a frock of green floral satin brocade similar to that of the honor attendant. She carried a basket of white and green tipped chrysanthemums.

The best man was Robert Musante of Warren, and serving as ushers were Dennis and Wayne Bullock, brothers of the groom, and Herbert Wiltzie, brother of the bride. The ring-bearer was Master David Long, nephew of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore a beige dress with turquoise accessories and a white carnation corsage accented with turquoise ribbon. The mother of the groom, was in powder blue with dark blue accessories and a white carnation corsage with blue ribbon accents.

The reception was held in the parlors of the church for two hundred guests. Decorations were carried out in yellow and green streamers with the bride's table ornamented with the bouquets of the attendants. Master and mistress of ceremonies were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wiltzie, brother and sister-in-law of the bride, Brenda Wiltzie, Carolyn Rockwell, Cleora Tuller, Mary Ann Swadick and Carol Jones.

For a wedding trip throughout Northwestern New York State, the new Mrs. Bullock wore a navy blue dress with a corsage of pink carnations and roses. Mr. and Mrs. Bullock are now residing at RFD 2, Frewsburg, N.Y.

The bride is a graduate of Frewsburg Central School in 1965, and International Data Processing Institute of Buffalo, also in 1965. She is presently employed by National Forge in the Data Processing Department. The groom attended Warren Area High School and is Police Officer at Warren State Hospital.

CUT DOWN CALORIES

When panbroiling meats, do pour off the drippings as they accumulate or it won't be true panbroiling; it will be panfrying if the meat cooks in its fat. Pouring off the drippings will also cut down the calorie count on the cooked product.

When preparing meat that's braised, which means browning first, pour off those drippings, too, before adding the braising liquid. This will also cut down the calorie count.

Opening lead: Eight of ♠.
An elaborate series of precautions by South, the declarer at four spades, proved essential in order to protect his trump holding from a deadly assault by the opposition.

West opened the eight of hearts and declarer won the trick with the ace. From East's opening bid, it appeared certain that he held the ace of spades, so South resolved to make all trump plays toward his hand in order to conserve his high card strength in the suit. The main concern was to avert an overruff in the heart suit by West.

At trick two, declarer led a diamond to dummy's queen in order to play a small spade. East followed with the nine and South put up the queen which held the trick. He was afraid to reenter the North hand with another diamond because the ten played by East on the previous round appeared likely to be a singleton.

Accordingly, the nine of clubs was led to the ace—South was willing to forgo the luxury of a club finesse since drawing trump was more important—and the five of spades was played from dummy. East was in with the ace. He cashed the king of clubs, the king of hearts and continued with the queen, but South was now in complete command of the situation. He trumped with the king of spades to shut out West's ten, and North's jack was used to draw the last trump.

Due to the shaky nature of his trump holding, every one of declarer's precautions was essential to avert defeat. If he had made a single trump play from his hand, East's ace would have captured the dummy's jack, and then repeated heart leads must establish West's ten of spades on an overruff. Similarly, had South taken the club finesse, East would have been able to build up a trump trick for his partner by the same method.

Your Horoscope

By Frances Drake

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars, FOR WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1968.

ARIES (March 21 to April 20)—Even if it is the first time, modernize where condition calls for it. You have a classic treasury of assets at your beck and call, but be specific how you use them. Never at a loss for ideas.

TAURUS (April 21 to May 21)—You can win a sweepstakes today, though it may have to be in the business or professional world. Education is your byword, and you never desert a cause once you take it up. We depend upon you.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)—No restrictions on good will, and don't abandon your imagination. You are eligible for both simple and complicated awards. The prize-winning receipts you accumulate you spend freely, and all gain.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)—You and your family can enjoy, and do, many things together. This is the Sign of the newspaperman, the publisher, the musician. And you are never ready for retirement. Keep that umph going.

LEO (July 24 to August 23)—How to invest your savings and make it easy for your later years is a must with you. You love travel and points of interest. Are not the ordinary conversationalists. Take a new look into the future.

VIRGO (August 24 to September 23)—You bring the excitement and color to the everyday world around you, and only subscribe to the finest manners. You may revise and modernize but you will still incorporate the old with the new.

LIBRA (September 24 to October 23)—Methodically, yes, but never tiringly repetitious. You see the pointlessness immediately, and the purpose of dealing with others in a congenial way. This is not necessarily a speech maker. Your context sticks.

How to Keep Well

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made when return stamped envelope is inclosed. Telephone inquiries not accepted. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnoses or prescribe for individual diseases.

CHECKING FOR GLAUCOMA

The tonometer is a quick and painless device used to test for glaucoma. Local anesthetic is dropped into each eye, and the instrument is placed on the orbits to measure pressure. We recommend that this test be done along with regular checkups even when there are no ocular symptoms. Tonometry is a must for relatives of glaucoma sufferers because these people are six times more likely to develop the ailment.

In this over-40 disorder, pressure within the eyeball is so great that the nerves of sight are in danger of being crushed. Blindness may occur unless the condition is detected and treated. Diagnosis is not difficult when glaucoma is at the acute and painful stage. The eyeballs become hard as stone and emergency care is needed.

Chronic glaucoma, the common form, develops more slowly and is difficult to recognize because the tension may build up without warning signals. It is suspected whenever vision is fuzzy or blurred or the individual finds it troublesome adjusting to the dark when watching a movie or TV. Other signs are loss of side vision and seeing colored halos around lights. Everyone with these manifestations should have the tonometer test.

The pressure can be reduced with special drops that unblock the drainage system of the eye which is hold-

SCORPIO (October 24 to November 22)—Whether it is tangible or intangible, constant or alternating, you have a word and a deed for it. Sometimes you are unorthodox, but this is substantiated and your meanings get across.

SAGITTARIUS (November 23 to December 21)—You like to expand and rewrite and speculate, but something these traits can be haphazard and the rapture and impressiveness is gone. One can call upon you for different-type arrangements.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 20)—Once you find the significance of a measure you stay with it. You refuse outlandish functions or contraptions. By definition you are normally conservative, but will do the extraordinary, if fitting.

AQUARIUS (January 21 to February 19)—Experience teaches you, and logic rules, if you are a true Aquarian. You do not care what others think so long as your expression of ideas is both symbolic and accepted. The receiver of respect.

PISCES (February 20 to March 20)—Though it may be customary, when it does not please you it becomes perplexing and untenable. Pisces' vocabulary extends to the everywhere. You will not be surprised when the way is clear.

YOU BORN TODAY: Fresh sources are sought and standardized by Libra. Your prolific vitality seems endless. You will cooperate and still do things individually. Within your brain power and brawn are the concentration of success. It must be utilitarian to be considered by you, and you are one who leaves all the sheep to find the little one who has strayed. Bias never enters your head, though witlessly it may be a part of your actions. Remodeling, repairing, and creating opportunity are your bent. You comply with due orders to the letter. Don't be frustrated.

ing back the outflow of eye fluid. Another method involves the use of diuretics that decrease the inflow of fluid into the orbit. Should these measures fail, a new drainage outlet can be formed via surgery.

Controlling glaucoma may be a lifelong project. Never forget to take the medicine when busy, sick, or on vacation. Avoid dark rooms as when watching TV. Also minimize stress and cut down on the intake of coffee, tea, tobacco, and alcohol.

TOMORROW: Indigestion.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

CAUSES FOR DIZZINESS

E.P. writes: Why does a person become dizzy when lying flat in bed? After a few minutes, he must turn his head to the left or right to clear the head. This also happens when standing, sitting, or looking at an object. Sometimes he feels as though he will pass out. Is this a common sensation?

REPLY
It is a common manifestation, but you should be examined because there are many causes for dizziness, including an ear disturbance, arthritis of the neck, or a circulatory disorder.

Doctors Not Always Available

By LEE LINDER
Associated Press Writer
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Doctors, doctors everywhere—but not always available when you're sick.

An Associated Press survey in Pennsylvania shows not only a shortage of general practitioners, but also more hours of leisure for physicians. No one knows this except the person who finds it tough getting a doctor.

"Evening office hours are vanishing," reports the Lock Haven Express about conditions in Clinton County in Central Pennsylvania. "And doctors are hard to find on Wednesday afternoons, Saturdays and Sundays."

Other communities report Thursday, plus the weekends, as the usual days off.

However, Dr. John H. Harris, Sr., of Harrisburg, past president of the Pennsylvania Medical Society, said "this cannot accurately be called a day off because the physician still has hospital visits and emergency calls."

In emergencies, when their own doctor isn't available, some patients go direct to hospitals. "Most communities also have an emergency call system that makes a physician available on the spur of the moment when there is a real need," said Harris.

That, sometimes, is the rub—defining the "real need." Homestead Hospital, in the Pittsburgh area, reports its emergency room is often overcrowded because patients can't reach their own doctors.

Jack Engelmoor, Homestead's executive director, said, "all emergency rooms experience this problem."

Many hospitals—and Luzerne County is typical—now are adopting plans in which they staff special dispensaries with physicians round-the-clock. Persons without family doctors, or who come in for emergency treatment, are billed by the hospital who pays the doctor a salary.

Dr. Dean Clark, director of medicine and hospital administration at the University of Pittsburgh, said part of the trouble "is that most people don't work on getting a family doctor."

"They wait until they need a doctor and then call him," said Clark. "The doctor doesn't even know the family and he is reluctant to make a call. He couldn't even be of much use, I'm afraid."

Even when you do reach a doctor, substituting for your own, you don't always get help. This letter from a Philadelphia Bulletin reader tells why:

"On a recent pleasant Saturday morning, I became suddenly and unaccountably ill. So I called my doctor, and a female voice told me that he was out and would not be back until Monday. But, she said, Dr. L. was taking his calls."

"So I called Dr. L.'s office, and a female responded. I explained my plight, and she said, 'Dr. L. isn't in just now but he is in touch with me. You know since this will be your first visit, the fee will be $30.'"

"Oh, I said, 'I'm sick but I don't know if I'm that sick.'"

"So I went to the yellow pages of the phone book and located a Dr. R. near my home."

"You know," he said, "I'm not a general practitioner. I'm a radiologist... Why don't you try Dr. C. across the street?"

"So I called Dr. C. explaining that Dr. R. had given me his name."

"You know," he said, "I'm a surgeon, not a general practitioner... What about Dr. K. in the next block?"

"So I called Dr. K. in the next block. OUT. Out until Monday. That's when I fled to the refuge of the accident ward of the nearest hospital..."

Dr. Katharine R. Sturgis, president of the Philadelphia County Medical Society, said "there is no question that many physicians are not qualified to do general practice. They have spent years in specialties... and are too honest to feel competent to handle situations for which they are no longer qualified."

Commenting on the letter, Dr. Sturgis said of Dr. L. he "either has poor policies in regard to handling new patients or the individual covering his telephone has poor public relations sense."

House calls today are infrequent. The AP survey shows that doctors usually restrict their time to long-term patients.

Dr. William E. Papin, president of the Bedford County Medical Society, said most doctors turn down house calls because "it is a matter of convenience for the patient when the doctor travels to the home rather than to have the patient wait in the doctor's office for his turn."

Dr. Harris acknowledged that "physicians do discourage house calls as a matter of efficiency. The day is long past when the physician's armamentarium can be carried in a little black bag, and he can provide better and more efficient care in his office where the tools he uses are available to assist him."

Dr. J. W. Smith, secretary of the Beaver County Medical Society since 1939, said "Emergency rooms in hospitals are far better equipped than homes."

Dr. George R. Wentzel, secretary of the Northumberland County Medical Society, said "physicians are adopting the attitude that if the patient is too ill to come to the office he should be in a hospital or another facility to receive care."

It all boils down to the admission—and growing—shortage of G.P.'s in Pennsylvania.

In Centre County one physician said G.P.'s are scarce because they're overworked—"they can't plan evenings, Sundays, holidays, days off, and still take care of their patients, so they run to specialties to escape."

"Replacements for G.P.'s are getting to be practically nonexistent for this area," reported Dr. William C. Long, Secretary of the Clinton County Medical Society. And this is typical all over Pennsylvania.

Hints From Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:

Do you know how to care for potted chrysanthemums? I've tried watering them, not watering them, some live, some don't and can they be replanted?

Effie McLauren

I checked with the National Flower Association in Washington, D. C., and here is what they told me.

Don't put them in a dark corner. Put them where light will shine upon them. Don't put them near heat but in the coolest spot in your house.

A blooming plant needs water about every two days. Test the soil with your finger. If the soil is dry, water it. Never overwater.

And about the trickiest thing—which I didn't know—is to fill one of those plunger bottles with water and squirt it on the foliage (NOT the bloom). The plant will last longer.

They also told me that some types of potted chrysanthemums do not grow well if you plant them in your yard. There are different varieties.

If you receive a blooming chrysanthemum and want to plant it in the yard, most of them must be in a well-protected area and covered with newspaper, toe-sacks—that's a gunny-sack—through cold months.

Heloise

DEAR HELOISE:

Growing boys need trousers lengthened and there is always the problem of the hemline showing, especially on black.

I let the hem down, mark it with a black marking pencil, press, and presto—all black again.

Wise Mother

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE:

If your children have outgrown their bicycles, don't discard them!

Just prop up the back wheel at the axle on both sides (kick stand will not work). Lower the handle bars. Raise the seat. Remove the chain.

Now pedal away in the privacy of your own garage, utility room or bedroom.

Presto... from ?? hips and ?? waist to 36 hips and 24 waist.

Reader

DEAR HELOISE:

When you bring a new blouse home from the store in a plastic bag, don't throw the bag away.

Tear the bag along the seams, poke a hole in the center and slip it over a hanger. The bag will protect the neckline and the shoulders of a clean, white blouse while it hangs in the closet.

Nancy L.

DEAR HELOISE:

With five active boys in my home, broken windows are expected (not condoned).

The last time this happened, I cut some clear adhesive-backed plastic to size and completely covered the window. This covered the hole and the sharp jutting pieces of glass until my husband could find time to repair the window.

Mrs. D. B. Barron

DEAR HELOISE:

I did a wall mural for my little baby who loves trains. First, I found pictures of authentic steam engines in the encyclopedia and sketched one on a brown paper bag, and cut it out. I taped this to black adhesive wallpaper and cut it out.

I have an engine (with smoke), a coal car and a caboose.

It took about three hours to make and cost 72 cents. Everyone marvels over the "choo-choo train." They make wonderful silhouettes.

Fatty Bunch

DEAR HELOISE:

For reasons of health, I am absolutely forbidden any animal fat. I have found that if I freeze my meat, it is so easy to cut the fat off it. In fact, it almost breaks off.

Mr. J. E.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

DEAR HELOISE:

I hope this will help other housewives to get in the mood for spring housecleaning with the promise of getting their figure in shape in the process!

DEAR HELOISE:

Since I do alterations, I have to press a lot of hems and cuffs.

I've learned a way to do this without putting a shine on the cloth.

I put a piece of heavy brown paper bag over the material, moisten the top of the paper with a damp cloth and then iron. It leaves a nice press with no shine whatsoever.

This works well with all types of materials, especially with wool, and is excellent for trouser cuffs.
